Indiana Woman Is Newest Instant Millionaire with Super Millions Ticket!

(Madison) — A family tradition paid off big-time today when Emily Marion of Indianapolis redeemed a Super Millions scratch ticket worth $1 million.

The Marion family frequently gives scratch tickets to each other as gifts. Last week, after having won $50 himself, Emily's father purchased another ticket and gave it to Emily. Today, Emily cashed her ticket and took home more than $673,000 after taxes. With this kind of luck, it is the kind of tradition that is sure to continue.

The ticket was purchased at AM Star, 1129 South Park Street, Madison. AM Star earns a $20,000 retailer incentive from the $1 million prize, or 2% of the total prize.

There were a total of three $1 million prizes in the game, all of which have been claimed.

The Lottery's newest $30 scratch ticket, Ultimate Millions, is currently on sale in stores across Wisconsin and has two unclaimed $1 million prizes.

The odds of winning the top prize are 1:200,000.
