Sun Prairie Man Is Wisconsin's Newest Millionaire With New Instant Million Game!

(Madison) — Last night, Raymond Davis Jr. stopped by a Black Earth convenience store, scratched his lottery ticket, and almost fainted. He couldn't believe he was the third winner of Wisconsin's new Instant Million game, launched on February 21st. Instant Million is Wisconsin's first $30 instant scratch ticket, which now has one $1 million instant prize remaining.

Raymond bought his ticket at P and G Gas Company, 1525 State Street in Black Earth. He will take home $673,507.50 after taxes. P and G Gas Company also sold a $1,000 winning Instant Million ticket earlier this week to another lucky player.

For selling the $1 million winning ticket, P and G Gas earns a $20,000 incentive. Lottery retailers who sell winning tickets with prizes of $600 or more earn the equivalent of 2% of the prize.

Raymond declined to hold a news conference.
