$50,000 Winning Lottery Ticket Set To Expire Holly Jolly Raffle Winner Sold In Green Bay Expires June 10

(Madison) — There were two lucky top prize winners in the Holly Jolly Raffle last December, but in just over twenty days some of that luck may be passed on to Wisconsin taxpayers.

Last November, someone purchased a Wisconsin Lottery “Holly Jolly Raffle” ticket in Green Bay. That ticket turned out to be one of the two $50,000 winners in a drawing that was held on December 12.

But so far, no one has come forward to claim that winning ticket, and the 180-day claim period ends on Tuesday, June 10.

The unclaimed $50,000 “Holly Jolly Raffle” ticket was purchased at Kwik Trip, 935 Lombardi Ave. in Green Bay. The raffle number on the ticket is 057525.

There is also an unclaimed $1,000 winning ticket from the same drawing set to expire. That ticket was sold at Party Mart, W7124 Highway V in Lake Mills. The raffle number on that ticket is 077034.

If either ticket is not claimed by June 10 the prize money will be deposited in the Lottery Fund and used for property tax relief.
