Super Millions Scratch Game Produces Millionaire

(Madison) — Richard Rieben Jr. of Twin Lakes became Wisconsin's newest millionaire this past weekend by purchasing the Lottery's Super Millions top prize scratch ticket. Super Millions is Wisconsin's newest $30 instant scratch ticket.

Richard bought his ticket at the Twin Lakes Citgo at 410 N. Lake Avenue. He will take home more than $673,000 after taxes. Richard also won $1,000 at the same store in February by playing the $2 ticket Lots of $100's.

The Citgo store earns a $20,000 retailer incentive from the $1 million prize, or 2% of the total prize.

The odds of winning the Super Millions top prize are 1:200,000. There are a total of three $1 million prizes in the game, with two $1 million instant prizes remaining.

Richard declined to hold a news conference.
