Green Bay Lottery Retailer Helps Locate Missing Person

A gas station clerk from the Jackson Point Citgo in Green Bay helped an at-risk senior return home safely this weekend. The Wisconsin Department of Justice (DOJ) issued a Silver Alert when Cleo Basinski of Bellevue went missing. DOJ issues a Silver Alert to notify the public when an at-risk or vulnerable senior goes missing, and these alerts are sent to Lottery retailer terminals. Because of the clerk's actions, Basinski was found safe.

DOJ issued Basinski's Silver Alert on Saturday, March 26 at 4:29 A.M. A clerk at Jackson Point Citgo recognized Basinski's car and contacted the Brown County Sheriff's Office. The Silver Alert was cancelled at 5:44 A.M., about an hour after the alert was issued.

Jackson Point Citgo is located at 2710 Packerland Drive in Green Bay. This is the fourth time in just over a month that Lottery retailers have helped locate individuals who were missing.
