Wisconsin's Newest Millionaire Scratched His Way to a $1 Million Payout

Nicholas Robinson of La Crosse has won the third top prize of $1,000,000 playing the Instant $1 Million Payout scratch game.

Robinson scratched the first spot and noticed it was a $10,000 prize with a 5X multiplier. He then called his grandmother to tell her he had won $50,000. Robinson's grandmother told him to keep scratching, and that is exactly what he did. Robinson scratched his way to $1,000,000!

Robinson purchased his $30 Instant $1 Million Payout ticket at Kwik Trip at 1600 Maria Drive in Stevens Point.

Robinson plans to pay bills, purchase a car for his grandmother and invest the rest.

Retailers who sell winning tickets over $599 receive an incentive of 2% of the winning ticket amount up to $100,000.

This was the last $1,000,000 top prize available in the game.

The odds of winning the top prize in Instant $1 Million Payout are 1:160,000.
